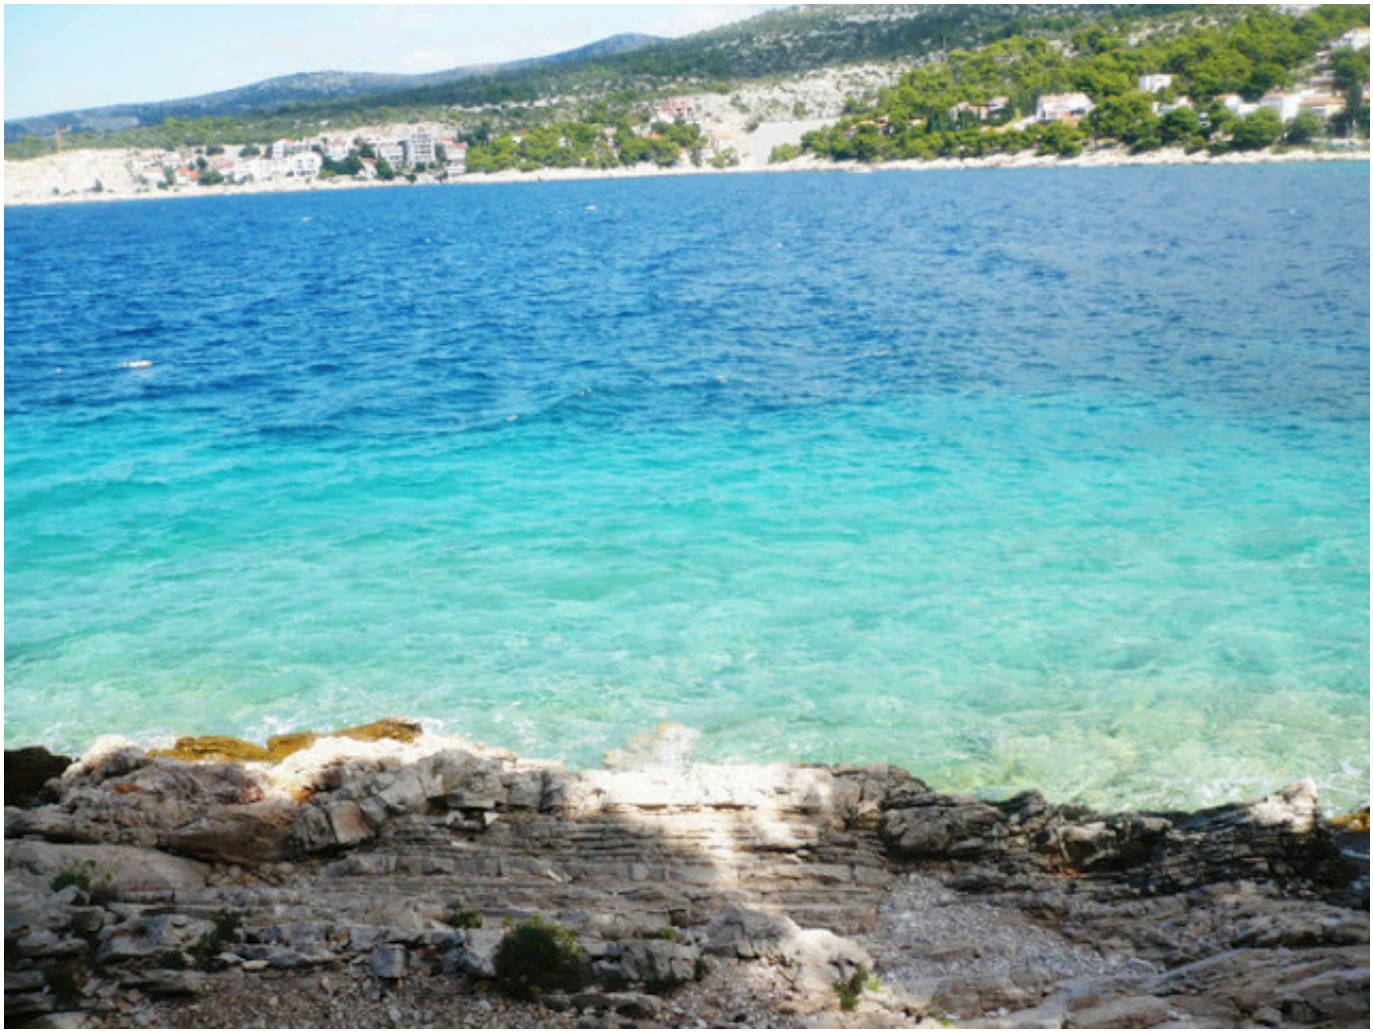
I'm back :)

Evo mene natrag nakon 7 magi?nih dana provedenih na putu tj. na godišnjem odmoru :) proputovali smo našu obalu od Zadra do Dubovnika sa stajalištima u Me?ugorju i Mostaru :) smješteni u Podacama svaki dan smo se vozikali i otkrivali nova mjestašca , malo smo se i okupali makar je ve? rujan i more je malo hladno ali mir i tišina na plaži su bili nevjerojatni :) i vrlo vjerojatno odgovorni za moja crvena le?a od sunca :D

Here I am again, after seven magical days spent on the road (on holiday) :) we traveld our lovly coast from Zadar to Dubrovnik with additional stops in Me?ugorje witch is a sanctuary in Bosnia and Hercegovina and a nearby town Mostar witch is magical :) we were staying at the house in a small place called Podace and we drived every single day in an other place :) we were also bathing a little bit though its september allready and the sea is a little bit colder but the peace and silence on the beach were amazing and probably responsable for the sunburn i got :)

The begining of the Makarska riviera



The amazing colors of the sea at a little town Primosten

Very beautiful and unique flowers in Podaca

The magical town in Bosnia and Hercegovina - Mostar

The old Bridge in Mostar

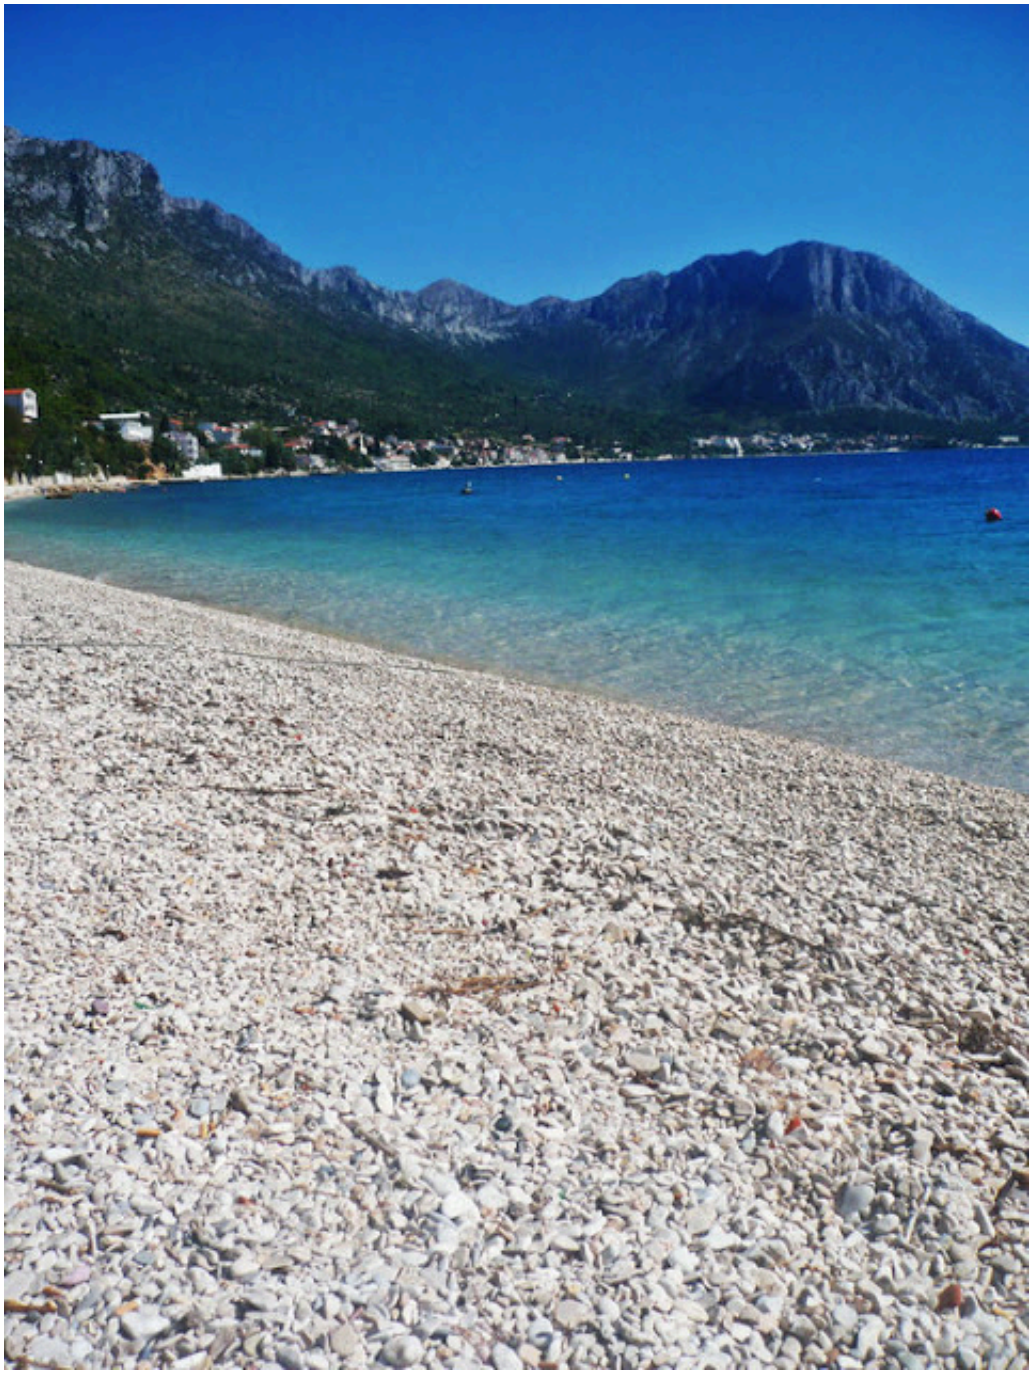
Stradun - the main streat in Dubrovnik

Dubrovnik

A cool bar on the edge of the old Dubrovnik walls over viewing the open sea

I also cooked something, but that in an other post :)

A sea urchin on the shore



The beach i got the sunburn :) it was so special, just the sea and the wind, and the both of us :)

And for the end a beautiful sunset at the riviera :)

I kako sam obe?ala, pravila sam danas Doma?i Bounty jer nisam mogla do?i na posao sa godišnjeg odmora bez da svojim dragim kolegama malo zasladim život :) u malo druk?ijoj okrugloj verziji - i pravljenje njih je odli?an na?in da se riješite stressa :) barem meni :)

As i promised i made again the home made Bounty bars this time little different as cute little balls :) because i couldn't come to work from a holiday without bringing something to sweeten their lives :) and i discover that making and decorating them is a great stress realese :)

Nadam se da sam vam barem malo do?arala ljepote naše obale i da ?ete uživati u slikama :)

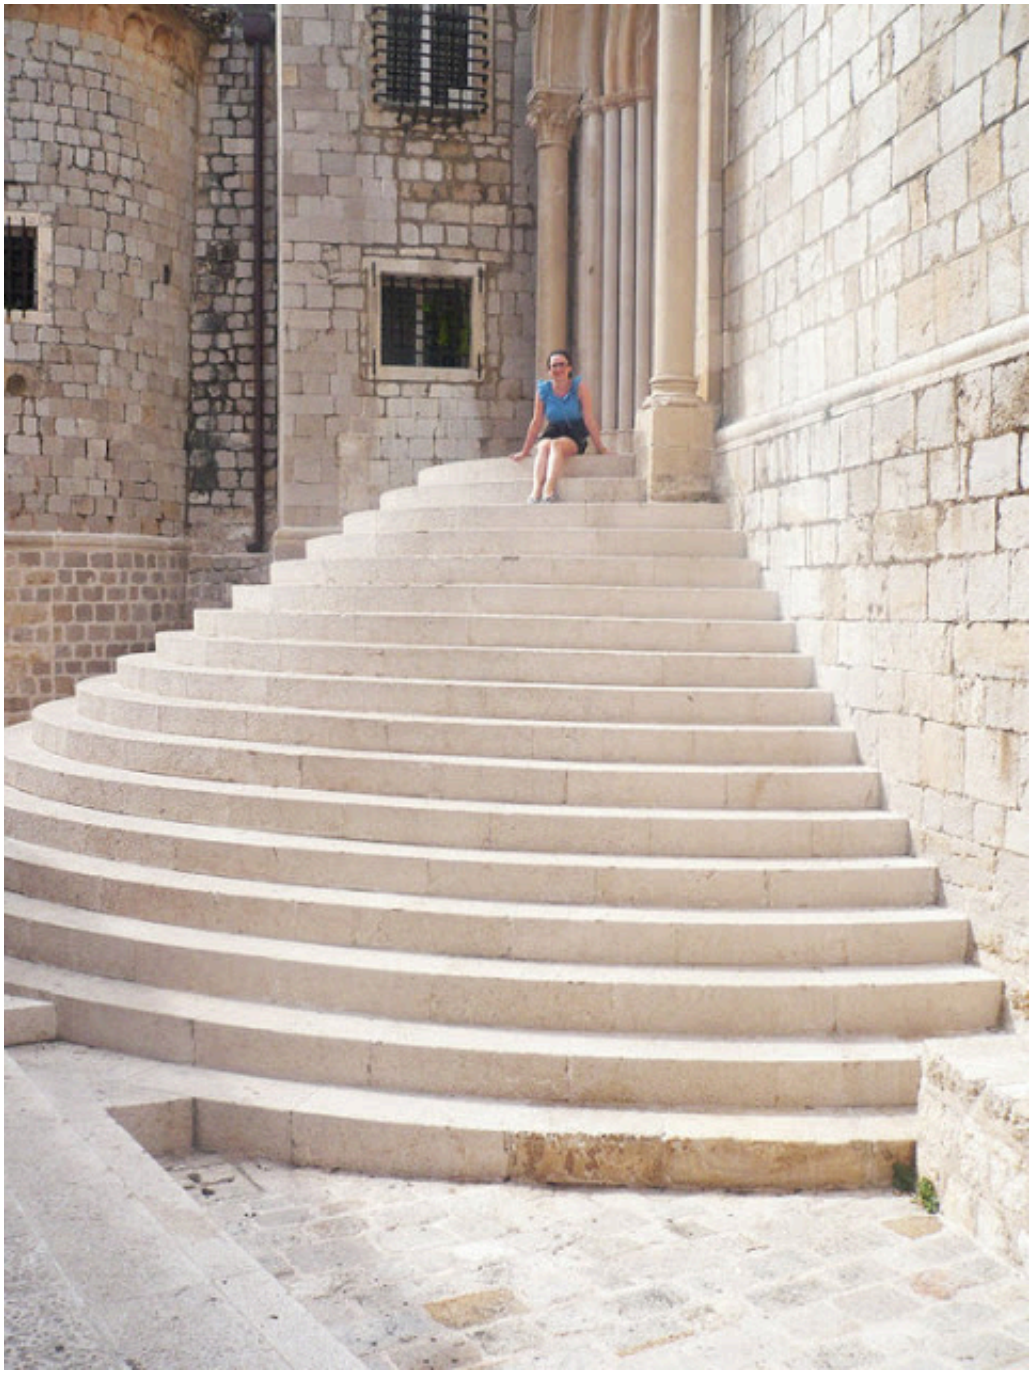
Uskoro malo više postova sa novim slasticama ali i ponekom slanom poslasticom :)

I hope i managed to show you a little bit of our Croatian coast that many call the most amazing coast in the world and that you enjoy the pictures :)

In the future there will be many more sweet posts with cakes and cupcakes and sometimes also a salty post :)

Do tad..... pozdrav iz Dubrovnika :) (želim natrag)

Until then..... greatings from Dubrovnik (want to go back there)



:) byby :)
